

Beautiful Sky

Nothing looks like as it seems
you want to realize your dreams.
But they, they are so far away
you hope you reach them on one day.

You're living in a restless world
life is hard sometimes it hurts.
But really slow you get insane
and you cannot stand the pain.

Chorus:

Look up, look up, there's a beautiful sky
and there's a wish, your wish that you can fly.
Fly far away and everything will change
a brand new start will help you to rearrange.

This is the time where you find new hope.
You must forget all the story's before.
If you are clear leave all your doubt,
don't sit and wait only new life can count.

You can be sure that you'll find your way
there is nothing else to say.
Everything looks as it seems
and you can realize your dreams.
