

Break

I'm going now to break with you
I cannot longer stay.
I'm leaving you without a shame
to find an other way.

We cannot talk, we can't discuss
we all have our own dreams.
We're going now a different way
nothing looks like as it seems.

Chorus:

We're not thinking the same way
our goal is not the same.
What will you reach at the end of the day,
is it only fame?

There was a very happy time
Where we where funny and close now we divided into two
and no tear flows.

We do not walk our way alone
we better don't look back.
The future now is shining bright
for this we're not to slack.

We're starting new, on a new way
and we forget the past.
The smile comes back in our face
is there a winner at last.
