

Bullet Proof

You're running through the world and you think you are a king.
Nothing can compared with you
your life is just a different thing.

You think you're simply are the best
but we know it isn't true.
You cannot give a damn on the rest
and we can't changing you.

Bridge:

But you stay as a stupid guy, and you're still alone.
No one lends a helping hand, every friend is gone.
But you stay as a stupid guy, and you're still alone.

Chorus:

You think you are, bullet proof
you feel like superman bullet proof, bullet proof.

You always walk alone
you can't feel no pride.
Nothing can compared with you
and you believe that now.
The world around can't see what you really are.
On everyday you'll be a hero and a star.

Bridge:

Chorus:

You think you are,
You think you are, bullet proof
you feel like superman bullet proof, bullet proof.
You think you are, bullet proof
you feel like superman.
