

Kick Her Ass

When you are in love and the whole world is blue.
There is no fear, there's nothing to do.
And you're not longer on the run.

After a while you can feel it more.
She's not the right girl and now you know.
That was no love, what she ever showed.

Chorus:

You are strong and you stand your man,
doing the best whatever you can.
Don't lose your way and never give up,
never the same so...
kick her ass.

You kick her ass and leave her alone.
You feel your heart is like a stone.
This feeling pas and an other will come.

That's a new live and it seems OK.
You're back on track, you're on your way.
And this is it, it's your new start.

Chorus:
