

Reality

Sometimes I life like in fairytale.
I wish a fairy came by.
Spend to me 3 wishes for free
but I know that whould, never happens to me.

Chorus:

Reality, Reality, I can't handle you
accept the threat witch comes from you.
Don't want to see the truth.

Sometimes I put all coins on one card.
Hope to win the game.
But I'm loosing everything,
now I can see my whole life, it's just a shame.

Chorus:

Right now I start with my new life
everything will change.
All I can feel is a new drive
I cannot run away, I have to rearrange.

Chorus:

Reality, Reality, I can't handle you.
Accept the threat witch comes from you.
Don't want to see the truth.
Reality, Reality, I can't handle you.
Accept the threat witch comes from you.
Don't want to see the truth.
