

Strange Feelings

Woke up this morning with an aching head.
I just remember the last words you said.
Go to hell or somewhere else
I won't see you again, I hear the door slam.

Took a long walk, smoked a cigarette,
my mind played things I couldn't forget.
I'll follow you where ever you'll be,
with strange feelings deep inside of me.

Chorus:

Strange feelings, inside of me.
Strange feelings, won't let me be.
Strange feelings, I miss you so.
Strange feelings, won't let me go.

I count the days since you're gone.
I tried to find you, there was so much fun.
Don't you remember the time with me
without you I'm nothing can't you see.

The only thing that I need to do,
is to be here, to be with you.
Take away this endless pain,
and let's make love under healing rain.
